

Spring Financial Literacy Series

Hosted by Dr. Ned Palmer & the HMS Financial Aid Office

Join Ned Palmer, MD MPH to prepare yourselves with financial information for your entire career as a physician. As the Co-Founder of Panacea Financial, a national digital bank for physicians, residents, and medical students, Dr. Palmer is acutely aware of the financial struggles of medical trainees.

These sessions are problem-directed, with practically applicable interventions that you can start at any stage in your career - including as a student! Academically, Dr. Palmer is in the global health faculty at Boston Children's Hospital, as well as at Harvard Medical School in the Center for Bioethics. Please join with the Zoom link Below.

Session Blocks:

May 3rd (8-9PM):

5 Financial Mistakes Physicians Make and How to Avoid Them

May 10th (8-9PM):

Student Loan Management Strategies Through Medical School, Into Residency, and Beyond

May 17th (8-9PM):

Investing and Retirement Planning for Medical Students

*Please bring your financial questions, as Dr. Palmer will stay after the sessions to answer any and all questions.
