

Winter 2023 Financial Literacy Series

The HMS Financial Aid Office is partnering with the Harvard University Employees Credit Union (HUECU) to provide you with two financial literacy presentations focusing on student loan repayment, debt repayment, and credit scores.

- CREDIT REPORTS, SCORES, AND CARDS Wednesday, February 15th at 7 p.m.
A higher credit score can save you money and open more financial doors. We will discuss how your credit score is calculated, what's on your credit report, and how to choose a credit card. Attendees will receive access to free credit counseling.
- STUDENT LOAN REPAYMENT AND REFINANCING Wednesday, February 22nd at 7 p.m.
Get tips to strategize repaying your federal and private student loans, while still managing other financial goals. Learn if refinancing or Public Service Loan Forgiveness makes sense for you .

Migdalia Gomez is the AVP of Community Engagement at the Harvard University Employees Credit Union. Migdalia helps improve the personal financial wellbeing by developing and delivering financial education to Harvard University, and affiliated communities. Migdalia has her Certificate in Financial Planning from Boston University.

Dominique Verdieu is a Community Engagement Specialist at the Harvard University Employees Credit Union. Dominique assists with content creation, public relations, and webinar presentations to deliver financial education on behalf of HUECU, and affiliated communities. Dominique holds a BA from Boston College in Communications and an MS in Corporate Communications from NYU.
